

JACL Presents:

MOVIE NIGHT! Saturday, May 14th

Suspect X (Yogisha X No Kenshin)

Directed by Nishitani Hiroshi, “Suspect X” transplants the TV drama’s winning formula and the mind-twisting appeal of Higashino Keigo’s original story straight to the big screen. Eternal heartthrob Fukuyama Masaharu stars as charmingly nerdy genius physicist Professor Yukawa Manabu, who uses his supreme intellect and reasoning to help headstrong detective Kaoru solve mysterious cases. This time Yukawa meets his match in Ishigami Tetsuya (acclaimed actor Tsutsumu Shinichi), A math genius and Yukawa’s former classmate who orchestrates the seemingly perfect murder cover-up. Can Yukawa unwrap the mystery and bring his friend to justice? This movie is Unrated
