

ABAS LAW FOUNDATION
Presents...

Sacramento Film Premiere

Saturday, September 23, 2017 at 2:00 p.m.
Crest Theatre, 1013 K Street, Sacramento

Tickets now available!
General Admission $15
Seniors and Students $10

As administration members pressed their Muslim registry and entry ban, they cited as “precedent” the lawless incarceration of Japanese Americans during World War II, a disaster for America’s civil rights. Abby Ginzberg’s timely and powerful And Then They Came for Us documents that incarceration. Featuring George Takei, who was a child prisoner, And Then They Came for Us warns us to speak up about today’s bigotry against immigrants, Muslims, transgender soldiers, refugees, Jews, and journalists.

Filmmaker Abby Ginzberg will appear. Post-film discussion panel: Justice Cruz Reynoso, transgender attorney-activist Mia Yamamoto, CAIR director Basim Elkarra, moderator Sharon Ito.

Buy tickets www.crestsacramento.com/event/1536313
See the trailer www.thentheycomedoc.com/about/
Group ticket pricing, sponsorship opportunities, more information www.abaslawfoundation.org/then-they-came

ORGANIZING COMMITTEE

- Led by ABAS Law Foundation
- Council on American-Islamic Relations-Sacramento Valley (CAIR-SV)
- Florin JACL-Sacramento Valley
- JACL Sacramento Chapter
- Northern California Time of Remembrance Committee
- Restorative Schools Vision Project
- Sacramento Asian Pacific Film Festival